

Architectual Installations

Last Updated Monday, 02 April 2007

I do a lot of artwork that goes in new houses. Such as entryway doors, fireplace mantels, stairway railings, and sandblast designs on glass windows to name a few.

{tab=Slideshow} {smoothgallery}

Click on a thumbnail to change display image. Click display image for fullsize version.{tab=Architectual Installations}

Fireplace InstallationI do a lot of artwork that goes in new houses. Such as entryway doors, fireplace mantels, stairway railings, sandblast designs on glass windows, gable beam figures and what ever strikes the client's fancy.

Western Red Cedar, Yellow Cedar Ravens Carved Stair Rail Cherry Wood and SteelThis project was something the client was interested in and the work for me was a challenge and turned out to be a lot of fun I love doing artwork that people live around and with because they get to enjoy it every day. {/tabs}